

- 1. If guel Angel Guezalos, Third Secretary and former Cultural Attache to the Argentine Embassy in Santiago, stated that he has information from Buenos Aires that Argentine President Peron is now encountering great political opposition and will probably be unable to retain himself in power much longer. According to Guezales, the following three groups are opposing Peron at present: the Argentine Army General Staff, the Catholic Church of Argentina, and a large group of political exiles or refugees operating from Montevideo led by Miguel Liranda.
- 2. Guezales stated he was not certain whether Argentine Ambassador Julio Argentino Lopez Muniz would return to Santiago from Buonos Aires. Guezales is anxiously awaiting the return of Mestor Lima Quintana, the Cultural Attache to the Argentine Embassy, who went to Buonos Aires to report on the activities of Ambassador Lopez Muniz in Santiago.
